Mayor-President
Melvin "Kip" Holden

Dear Friends,

Congratulations on the fifth annual Baton Rouge Irish Film Festival and celebration of the rich Irish culture we enjoy here in our city. I am very pleased to support these events that showcase the films, music, dance and literary arts of Ireland so we can continue to benefit from the wonderful diversity found in the people of Baton Rouge.

From the Manship Theatre to the volunteers to the businesses and the private establishments that have joined the Baton Rouge Irish Club for this festival, I hope you will attend all of the events and have an Irish experience like never before.

The more we learn about the cultural heritage of ourselves and our neighbors, the more welcoming and exciting our city becomes, especially for a young generation who wants to continue calling Baton Rouge home. I congratulate the Baton Rouge Irish Club on this exciting program with offerings for all ages, and look forward to a great weekend of activities.

I close with the faithful Irish reminder, "There are good ships, and there are wood ships, the ships that sail the sea. But the best ships are friendships, and may they always be."

I wish much success for Baton Rouge's fifth Irish Film Festival and may we see you all back next year!

Sincerely,

Melvin L. "Kip" Holden

Mayor-President

The mission of the Baton Rouge Irish Club is to help support and keep alive the heritage that over 60 million Americans claim as theirs.

The Baton Rouge Irish Club began the tradition of supporting Irish culture, history, and festivities in Baton Rouge over fifty years ago. Since the 1950s and 1960s, parades, grand dances, and large dinners celebrating St. Patrick's Day have been a part of the social landscape of Baton Rouge. Today our city's St. Patrick's Day parade draws the largest attendance for any single event in Louisiana. We host and participate in numerous cultural, educational, and social events throughout the year. We feel that The Baton Rouge Irish Film Festival is the next natural step in our community outreach.

New Baton Rouge Irish Film Festival Event: Wee Irish Film Night

The 2013 Film Festival has added another day and another great event to the festivities at the Manship Theatre. Wee Irish Film Night, held on Friday night, July 19, will show seven short films: The End of the Counter, Barry's Bespoke Bakery, Fear of Flying, Irish Folk Furniture, El Toro, Sylvia and a non-judged TV short, Mrs. Brown's Boys.

Audience members will be asked to vote on their favorite short film. At the conclusion of the evening the O'Kalem Award – the Audience Choice for Best Short Film – will be unveiled. The award was created locally by Nick Oldenburg (glass) and Mitch Evans (wood) and features handblown green glass mounted on an engraved walnut base.

SYNOPSIS OF FEATURE FILMS

The Secret of Roan Inish is centered on the Irish and Orcadian folklores of selkies – seals that can shed their skins to become human. The story is about Fiona, a young girl who is sent to live with her grandparents and her cousin Eamon near the island of Roan Inish, where selkies are rumored to reside. It is an old family legend that her younger brother was swept away in his infancy and raised by a selkie. Fantasy/Drama, rated G

Blazing the Trail: The O'Kalems in Ireland is a feature-length documentary on the New York based Kalem Film Company which made history in the early 1900s by sending leading film-makers, director Sidney Olcott and screenwriter and lead actress Gene Gauntier, to County Kerry in Ireland. They produced a series of ground-breaking films celebrated for their authentic settings and unrivaled in their use of scenery. The film tells the story of Olcott and Gauntier's adventures in Ireland. Documentary, rated G

Earthbound is about a man who finds out from his dying father that he is an alien and must continue his dying species. Joe was just a man who wanted an ordinary life, a place to call home and a nice girl to settle down with. To fulfill his father's wishes he finds a compatible human mate, Maria, and falls in love with her. While trying to convince her that he is an alien he learns that intergalactic bounty hunters, disguised as human resource specialists visiting his office, are in hot pursuit of him. Maria joins Joe in his attempt to escape to his home planet. Science Fiction/Comedy, rated PG13

The Guard tells the story of Sergeant Gerry Boyle (Brendan Gleeson) of Galway who is crass and abrasive and interprets the law a bit freely, all too glorious comic effect. Paired with strait-laced American FBI agent Wendell Everett (Don Cheadle), Boyle seeks to solve a couple of murders and disrupt a massive drug shipment in what could have been a buddy comedy – but, through a combination of sharp and witty writing, ruthless speedy editing and understated but spot-on performances, the movie is a marvel of character-based storytelling. Comedy/Crime/Thriller, rated R

$8.50 for each feature film includes live music, refreshments, cash bar & more!

The Northshore Irish Dance Academy will perform a Céili at the Film Festival on Saturday.

The Northshore Irish Dance Academy is located in Mandeville, Louisiana and offers classes in Irish Dance for all ages.

What is a Céili? (pronounced kay-lee) Céili dances (fior céili) are a popular form of folk dancing in Ireland and are performed at get-togethers such as house parties and corner road gatherings in the rural countryside for fun, fellowship, and laughs (or craic as the Irish might say). Céili dances are based on heys ("hedges" – pairs of lines facing), round dances, long dances and quadrilles.

A Céili dance may be performed with as few as two people and as many as sixteen. Céili dances may also be danced with an unlimited number of couples in a long line or proceeding around in a circle. Céili dances are often fast and complex and are typically danced to Irish instruments such as the Irish hand drum or harp.

The McTegart Irish Dancers of Louisiana is a competitive Irish dancing school in Metairie, LA under the direction of Maureen McTegart Hall, T.C.R.G., A.D.C.R.G.

The school offers: Weekly lessons for beginners through Championship dancers

Na Cait Dubh is the bagpipe and drum band for the Celtic Society of Louisiana. Na Cait Dubh performs in and for various parades, memorials, services, and private events.

Meetings are held every Monday evening from 7-9 pm at An Chistin (The Kitchen), the CSOL headquarters 9619 Airline Highway in Baton Rouge. Individuals interested in learning to play the Highland bagpipes or percussion instruments (snare, tenor, or bass drum) are invited to attend.
