Dear Friends,

Congratulations on the sixth annual Baton Rouge Irish Film Festival and celebration of the rich Irish culture we enjoy here in our city. I am very pleased to support these events that showcase the films, music, dance and literary arts of Ireland so we can continue to benefit from the wonderful diversity found in the people of Baton Rouge.

Mayor-President Melvin "Kip" Holden

From the Manship Theatre to the volunteers to the businesses and the private establishments that have joined the Baton Rouge Irish Club for this festival, I hope you will attend all of the events and have an Irish experience like never before.

The more we learn about the cultural heritage of ourselves and our neighbors, the more welcoming and exciting our city becomes, especially for a young generation who wants to continue calling Baton Rouge home. I congratulate the Baton Rouge Irish Club on this exciting program with offerings for all ages, and look forward to a great weekend of activities.

I close with the faithful Irish reminder, "There are good ships, and there are wood ships, the ships that sail the sea. But the best ships are friendships, and may they always be."

I wish much success for Baton Rouge's sixth Irish Film Festival and may we see you all back next year!

Sincerely,

Melvin I Kips Holden

CONSULATE OF IRELAND

Paul Gleeson, Consul General of Ireland

July 2014

Dear friends of Ireland in Baton Rouge,

On behalf of the Consulate General of Ireland for the US south-east, I want to welcome you to this wonderful Baton Rouge Irish Film Festival and congratulate the Baton Rouge Irish Club for organising this celebration of Irish cinema.

In promoting Irish film, this Festival continues the fine work of generations of Irish poets, playwrights and story-tellers who have entertained the world and served as superb ambassadors for Ireland in so doing. And for Baton Rouge, the Festival hopefully represents another stitch in the rich cultural tapestry of a city well-known for its quality of life and for the high calibre of its cultural output.

The language, humour and heartbreak that permeate so many movies at this Festival are at the heart of many great Irish works of art. And the best place to experience that rich Irish cultural heritage remains in Ireland herself, where a holiday absorbed in our music, countryside and history constitutes one of the finest cultural and life experiences our world has to offer.

In the meantime however, this Festival is the next best thing! Enjoy all it has to offer and please continue your support for the Festival and for the Baton Rouge Irish Club over the months and years to come.

With best wishes,

Cil-

The mission of the Baton Rouge Irish Club is to help support and keep alive the heritage that over 60 million Americans claim as theirs. The Baton Rouge Irish Club began the tradition of supporting Irish culture, history, and festivities in Baton Rouge over fifty years ago. Since the 1950s and 1960s, parades, grand dances, and large dinners celebrating St. Patrick's Day have been a part of the social landscape of Baton Rouge. Today our city's St. Patrick's Day parade draws one of the largest attendances for any single event in Louisiana. We host and participate in numerous cultural, educational, and social events throughout the year. We feel that The Baton Rouge Irish Film Festival is the next natural step in our community outreach.

SYNOPSES OF FEATURE FILMS

All movies are rated R

LIFE'S A BREEZE

Emma, a 13-year-old Dubliner, is asked by her Uncle Colm to take her Nan for a day out so the family can surprise her with a home makeover—to which Emma reluctantly agrees. When they return to find the house transformed, refurnished, and redecorated, all rejoice... until Nan announces that she had hidden her life savings in the mattress.

GOOD VIBRATIONS

Terri Hooley is a radical, rebel and music-lover in 1970s Belfast when the bloody conflict known as the Troubles shuts down his city. As all his friends take sides and take up arms, Terri opens a record shop on the most bombed half-mile in Europe and calls it Good Vibrations.

CALVARY

Father James is a good priest who is faced with troubling circumstances brought about by a mysterious member of his parish. He feels sinister forces closing in and begins to wonder if he will have the courage to face his own personal Calvary.

THE BACHELOR WEEKEND

A bachelor party weekend takes some unexpected detours in this hilarious and heartfelt Irish comedy about a foppish groom-to-be who reluctantly agrees to go on a camping trip before his nuptials.

The Northshore Irish Dance Academy will perform a Céilí on Saturday.

The Northshore Irish Dance Academy is located in Mandeville, Louisiana and offers classes in Irish Dance for all ages.

What is a Céilí? (pronounced kay-lee) Céilí dances (fíor céilí) are a popular form of folk dancing in Ireland and are performed at get-togethers such as house parties and corner road gatherings in the rural countryside for fun, fellowship, and laughs (or craic as the Irish might say). Céilí dances are based on heys ("hedges" – pairs of lines facing), round dances, long dances and quadrilles.

A Céilí dance may be performed with as few as two people and as many as sixteen. Céilí dances may also be danced with an unlimited number of couples in a long line or proceeding around in a circle. Céilí dances are often fast and complex and are typically danced to Irish instruments such as the Irish hand drum or harp.
